VERSE 1
I[1]
                                   IV
I've been a wild rover for many a year,
and I've spent all my money on whiskey and beer.
But now I'm returning with gold in great store,
and I never will play the wild rover no more.
                                              IV
And it's no, nay, never, _ no, nay, never no more
                                I V^7
                     IV
will I play the wild rover, no, never, no more.
VERSE 2
I[1]
                                      IV
I went into an alehouse I used to frequent \mathbf{v}^7
and I told the landlady my money was spent.
I asked for a bottle, she answered me "Nay,
                 \mathbf{V}^7
such a custom as yours I can get any day."
         V
                                               IV
And it's no, nay, never, _ no, nay, never no more
                                I V^7
                     IV
will I play the wild rover, no, never, no more.

I[1] IV Then out of my pocket I took sov'reigns bright,  $V^7$ and the landlady's eyes opened wide with delight. She said "I have whiskies, and wines of the best,  $\mathbf{V}^7$ and the words that I said, sure, were only in jest." V And it's no, nay, never, \_ no, nay, never no more  $\mathbf{I} \quad \mathbf{V}^7$ IV will I play the wild rover, no, never, no more. VERSE 4 IV

I[1] I'll go back to my parents, confess what I've done,  $\mathbf{v}^7$ and ask them to pardon their prodigal son. And if they caress me as ofttimes before,  $\mathbf{v}^7$ then I never will play the wild rover no more. And it's no, nay, never, \_ no, nay, never no more  $I V^7$ IV will I play the wild rover, no, never, no more.
