I[3]          vi      I                                vi
Because I love you! _ Flowers will bloom and I love you!
I              vi
_ Grey skies or blue: I love you!

vi                                     ii
My love for you I cannot hide, the tears I shed I shed with vi
pride.

                                     ii
Your smile is one of thousands, I hope we never part vi
because

I
roses are red and I love you!

```

vi ii
Sometimes I wonder how I would, would make it through this
vi
world alone,
ii
a world where true love is so rare. I hope we never part vi
because I
violets are blue and I love you!
