CHORUS

I[1]            V<sup>7</sup>                                  IV                                  I
I wanna reach my hands far up high into heaven's sky,
               V<sup>7</sup>                                  IV                                  I become untied to moods, bad feelings and to all demands.
               V<sup>7</sup>                                  IV                                  I      IV                                  I
To find my freedom, get rid of all moral boundary, I wanna run.
                             V<sup>7</sup>    IV
(Here's nothing left to lose, so why not leave the walls and all
                             I
behind?)
                             V<sup>7</sup>    IV    I
I wanna run so far, I wanna run so fast, I wanna run!
                             V<sup>7</sup>    IV    I
Just take my burning heart, not looking back again, I wanna run!

VERSE 1

I[3] ii I
No longing for those matters being the past,
ii I
the cry of empty souls may fill lonely void,
v<sup>7</sup>
what counts lies steps ahead,
IV I v<sup>7</sup>
just a smile to reach nowhere in there,
IV I
no regret, never look back!

VERSE 2

I[3] ii I
The flow of ideals carried through by blue dreams,
ii I
illusions of what turns hope into sad eyes,
v<sup>7</sup>
free birds are flying south,
IV I v<sup>7</sup>
just a timewarp they'll be there in the sun
IV I
having fun, may be come back!
