

Looking Out For Some Sunshine

(Am Wegrund Hoch Zur Akropolis)

Words and Music by Ken Haiker

Copyright (c) 1995-2000

Song Scheme: Verse1 Chorus Verse2 Chorus Bridge Chorus Outro

Key: D Tempo: 120

CHORUS

I[1] iii IV I
Lookin' out for some sunshine I got lost feelin' blue.
 ii I V⁷ I
walkin' all empty streets I know, until finally I met you.
 iii IV I
Watchin' all beauty flowers never meant much to me.
 ii I V⁷
feelin' them while I hold your hands, that's the sun and all I of its bloom.

VERSE 1

I[1] V⁷ I
I was quite restless chasin' inside emptyness, V⁷ I
nothing to lose I was so much afraid of me, V⁷ I
there was no time no space just awful void in dark, V⁷ I
there were no colors and no sounds I could enjoy.
 ii I V⁷ I
Such an alien then I was havin' no one that I would love.

VERSE 2

I[1] V⁷ I
Havin' much space does mean you'll be alone all day,
 V⁷ I
and in the night there is no one to hold you tight, V⁷ I
desertion in your heart is nothin' worth to share
 V⁷ I
when you could water flowers with the one you love.
 ii I V⁷ I
Such an alien then I was havin' no one that I would love.