CHORUS

I[3] IV I
Restless on the road again, taking cargo round the world.
IV
It's a busy, steady drive-a-long, countless straight lines
I
that do never end.
VII IV
On the radio they play great songs, Billy sings one,
I
fashioned, old.
VII IV
Heavy wheels do rush about the road, all day long and through I
the night.

OUTRO

I[3]
Heavy wheels do rush about the road, all day long and through the night.

VERSE 1

I[3] vi I
Every time a good time on the road, engine sound, vibrating
V⁷
wheels,
I vi IV I V⁷ I
driving fast from here to there, whispering songs from memory.
IV I
Recollecting times when life was young and teddy-bear was best friend, V⁷ IV V⁷ I
nice illusions of the world, childhoods matter free of care.

VERSE 2

I[3] vi I
Stop the truck for hitchhiking nice girls, standing at the V7
road alone,
I vi IV I V7
showing you their hopefull thumb, smiling eyes that look at I
you.
IV I
It's much nicer driving 50ty tons in company, girl will tell V7 IV V7 I
why she ran away from home, and you listen, drive and drive.
