INTRO

I[1] ii IV
When you look at me, the way you do, it's like watching
I
wellknown climes.

I
your eyes.
ii IV
I can always spot my lucky star, it turns up when you show
I
me your love.

I[3] 1.IV 2.ii I
||: Starry eyes, starry eyes,
ii
warmest heart, and starry eyes shine bright,
I
tender twinkle, shine in crystal light. :||

Looking in your eyes is like watching universe.
ii IV
What I see is endless magic charme and it makes me fall in

ii
drop by drop your floods of tears run down, IV I
rolling down your face to my heart.

And their spirits move over your smile, wand'ring fast from heart to soul.

Shooting stars pass by, greetings from your lovely
I
eyes,
 ii
magic colors to enjoy my heart, IV I
rich and jewel and full of joy.
