CHORUS
V[1]^{7}
                       IV
Future, I'm coming! No doubt about big luck!
Tomorrow, my real fortune day,
gotta hold out this night alone,
just one more night, one lonely night,
just one more night, one night all alone.
VERSE 1
                       ii IV
I[1]
All my friends stay in town but I'm leaving home.
                 vi
                         ii
Yesterday swept aside, tomorrow will last forever.
                        vi
That's my chance, my big chance. (So)
VERSE 2
I[1]
                 ii
                             IV
While I may physically leave home it may take
                    ii
psychologically, it may take some time to seperate
                  vi
and create my own Me! (But)
OUTRO
Just one more night, one lonely night,
              ii
just one more night, one night all alone.
