

Morning Has Broken

Words and Music: (M) Galic Traditional, (W) Eleanor Farjeon, 1931

Key:                      Tempo:

VERSE 1

I[1]                      ii   V                      IV I
Morning has broken like the first morning,
                                 iii vi   II<sup>7</sup>                      V
blackbird has spo-ken like the first bird.
I                      IV                      I                      vi II
Praise for the singing, praise for the morning,
V                      I                      IV   V<sup>7</sup>                      I praise for them springing fresh from the world.

VERSE 2

I[1]                      ii   V                      IV I
Sweet the rain's new fall, sunlit from heaven,
                                 iii vi   II<sup>7</sup>                      V
like the first dew-fall on the first grass.
I                      IV                      I                      vi II
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden,
V                      I                      IV   V<sup>7</sup>                      I sprung in completeness where his feet pass.

VERSE 3

I[1]                      ii   V                      IV I
Mine is the sunlight, mine is the morning,
                                 iii vi   II<sup>7</sup>                      V
born of the one light Eden saw play.
I                      IV                      I                      vi II
Praise with elation, praise ev'ry morning,
V                      I IV   V<sup>7</sup>                      I
God's recrea-tion of the new day.