

Wildwood Flower

Words and Music: Traditional

Key:                      Tempo:

VERSE 1

I[3]                                      V                      I
I'll entwine, and I'll mingle my raven black hair with the roses so red, and the lilies so fair.
And my eyes will outshine even stars in the blue,
said I, knowing not that my love was untrue.

VERSE 2

I[3]                                      V                      I
Oh, he promised to love me, he called me his flow'r.
He said I was the blossom to cheer ev'ry hour.
But I woke from my dream, and my idol was clay.
This wildflower weeps through the night and the day.

VERSE 3

I[3]                                      V                      I
But I'll dance and I'll sing, and my heart will be gay.
No more tears, no more sighs, no more weeping away.
I'll be 'round when I see him regret this dark hour,
when he threw away this poor frail wildwood flow'r.
